

Dress for Success

- Don't underestimate the power of a first impression.
- Appropriate attire supports your image as a person who takes the interview process seriously and understands the nature of the industry in which you are trying to become employed.
- Never confuse an interview or business function with a social event. Don't dress for a party or a date.

Women

Business Professional

Pressed and professional suit and dress shirt

Solid colors are best – navy, black, gray, brown

Keep hair style conservative

Skirt or pant suit is fine Keep perfume to a minimum

Polished closed toe shoes with about 1/2" heel

Hands and nails should be clean and neat

Always remember breath mints and deodorant
